So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Mackey, the house proceeded to consider the bill reported by him, entitled, An act to incorporate the Conewingo and Wilmington Turnpike Road Company; and in the progress of the second reading thereof,

On motion by Mr. Mackey, the blank in the second line of the second section, was filled in with the word "sixty."

On motion by Mr. Mackey, the ninth section of said bill was amended as follows:

Strike out the word "and" after the word "Maryland," in the second line, and insert the words, "other than the banking institutions, and that"

After the word, "the," in the same line, insert the words, "government of the"

And after the word "states" in the same line, strike out the words, "or any of the securities of any of the departments of the United States."

The said bill having been read through, was then passed, as amended.

Messrs. Banning and Peter, of the joint committee appointed on the part of this house, to wait on his excellency, the governor, and to invite his attendance in the senate chamber, at the hour of seven o'clock this evening, for the purpose of signing and sealing such of the engrossed bills of both branches of the legislature, as may be prepared for that process, reported, that the said committee had discharged the duty assigned them, and that the governor had returned for answer, "that he would accordingly attend in the senate chamber, at the time appointed, for the purpose above mentioned."

Mr. Goldsborough from the joint committee on engrossed bills, delivered the following report; which was twice read, and concurred with, viz.

The joint committee on engrossed bills, beg leave to report, that they have carefully examined and compared the engrossed bills of the house of delegates, designated from number one to number fifty-seven, inclusive, and from number seventy-four to number ninety-one, inclusive, and also
